

Colby Community College International Student Sponsor Financial Agreement

Please complete this Sponsor Financial Agreement accurately, as inaccurate information may delay or possibly terminate final admission.

POLICY: Colby Community College is unable to offer financial aid for international students. It is the policy of CCC that all international students be able to finance their own education for each academic year. A financial statement (with account numbers marked out) in the sponsor's name is required with this financial agreement before a student's application is complete. A copy of identification of the sponsor must be submitted with the financial documentation.

*A sponsor is a person who will be financially responsible for the student during his/her entire stay in the United States.
