

Parent Orientation Schedule

We are pleased to welcome your family to Colby Community College. Whether your student is new or returning, full-time or part-time, we feel that parents and families can be immeasurable to success in college. By “parents and families” we mean moms, dads, guardians, stepparents, grandparents, siblings, and anyone who loves and cares for your son or daughter.

Saturday, August 18, 2012

10:00-2:00 p.m. Move-in to Residence Halls
Students get TB skin tests (if not completed yet)

Residence Halls

This is your starting point. Students should check-in at their residence halls.

10:00-2:00 p.m. Offices Open
Student Union

Financial Aid, Billing, Bookstore, and Admissions offices will be open for you to get all of your questions answered.

1:00-2:00 p.m. Financial Aid Meeting-Mandatory
Student Union, Room 106

A mandatory meeting for any student receiving federal financial aid with important information. Parents, students, and family are welcome to this meeting.

2:00-3:00 p.m. Transfer Student Meeting
Student Union, Fireside Lounge

Students who are transferring from and to another college should attend this meeting. Students will learn new things about Colby Community College and things you need to know in order to transfer to another college after graduation.

3:00 p.m. Fun and Games
Outside Residence Halls

Meet new friends by playing games and having a blast! Meet outside the residence halls to find faculty and staff leading fun games.

3:00 p.m. Parent Orientation
Student Union, Room 106

What can I expect from this new living situation for my son or daughter? What if a student becomes ill? Who do I contact if there is a family emergency? How can I check my student's grades? Many questions arise when bringing a student to live and learn on a college campus. Student Affairs staff will address these and other questions that parents/family members may have.

5:00 p.m. Family Social
Student Union

Relax by playing yard games and talking with new friends. Bring the whole family for this fun event!

7:00 p.m. Saturday Night Flick
Student Union Courtyard

You don't need to go far to relax and enjoy time with new friends and munch on popcorn while watching an outdoor movie right on campus.

11:00 p.m.
Late arrivals and night owls can enjoy another movie.

Sunday, August 19, 2012

1:00-3:00 p.m. Move-in to Residence Halls
Students get TB skin tests (if not completed yet)

Residence Halls
This is your starting point. Students should check-in at their residence halls.

1:00-3:00 p.m. Offices Open
Student Union

Financial Aid, Billing, Bookstore, and Admissions offices will be open for you to get all of your questions answered.

1:00-2:00 p.m. Financial Aid Meeting-Mandatory
Student Union, Room 106

A mandatory meeting for any student receiving federal financial aid with important information. Parents, students, and family are welcome to this meeting

2:00-3:00 p.m. Transfer Student Meeting
Student Union, Fireside Lounge

Students who are transferring from and to another college should attend this meeting. Student will learn new things about Colby Community College and things you need to know in order to transfer to another college after graduation.

3:00 p.m. Fun and Games
Outside Residence Halls

Meet new friends by playing games and having a blast! Meet outside the residence halls to find faculty and staff leading fun games.

3:00 p.m. Parent Orientation
Student Union, Room 106

What can I expect from this new living situation for my son or daughter? What if a student becomes ill? Who do I contact if there is a family emergency? How can I check my student's grades? Many questions arise when bringing a student to live and learn on a college campus. Student Affairs staff will address these and other questions that parents/family members may have.

4:00 p.m. Meeting for Athletes and Families
Cultural Arts Center

A brief meeting is required for all students involved in Colby Community College intercollegiate athletics. This is an opportunity to meet the Athletic Director and Director of Health Services. You will receive information about insurance, eligibility, and athletic policies.

4:30 p.m. Families Depart

Families and friends will have a brief time to say their farewells.