Rationale: The purpose of the course is to prepare first-time dental hygiene students to be responsible, contributing members of society by providing information to navigate higher education and develop life long management skills. This is a required course for graduation from Colby Community College.

Course Description: This course is designed to facilitate transition into dental hygiene, and prepare students to successfully enter the workforce. All first-time, interviewed accepted dental hygiene students will take this course to learn how our program works with NTC.

Course Outline: This course will assist new college students in acquiring essential skills needed for academic success. The topics to be covered include: owning your education, personal education plan, technology, library resources, self-advocacy, goal setting and personal organization, student responsibility and behavior, diversity and conflict management, finances, health and wellness, transfer and articulation, and life choices.

Course Learning Objectives Assessed:

As a result of attending and participating in class the student will be able to demonstrate the ability to do the following through orally or in written format as determined by the instructor:

- Identify their personal reasons for attending dental hygiene and how to make room for it in their life
- Review NTC handbook
- Review Expectations throughout the program
- Create a working plan for a course of study leading to degree completion (and transfer if applicable)
- Identify library resources, hours and available tutoring
- Demonstrate self-advocacy problem solving and critical thinking skills based on assigned scenarios
- Offer options for conflict resolution based on diversity
- Determine a plan for financing the next semester's course work
- Provide examples of how health and wellness effect college success and options for improving success
- Discuss how personal choices influence long term life outcomes
- Inform that this in their new job and the next two years they will learn all about this new job

Method of Instruction: Material for this course will be presented by discussion, lecture, guest speakers and class participation. The instructor may modify the syllabus and class activities in the best interest of student learning and will notify the students of any changes.

Method of Evaluation: The student will be given a letter grade for the course. The class meeting time is by the schedule, and will be determined by the instructor. There may be assignments that will be graded. The grading scale is as follows: A=90-100%; B=80-89%; C=70-79%; D=60-69%; and F=59% and below.

Course Requirements:

1. To attend both meetings in spring and fall.
2. To know your instructor: name, office, and phone.
3. Participate--learning and understanding require you to be an active participant.
4. Meet the objectives of the course as established by the instructor.

Assignment, Test and Attendance Policies:

There are no assignments.

Academic Integrity Policy:

Colby Community College defines academic integrity as learning that leads to the development of knowledge and/or skills without any form of cheating or plagiarism. This learning requires respect for Colby's institutional values of quality, service and integrity. All Colby Community College students, faculty, staff, and administrators are responsible for upholding academic integrity.

Cheating is giving, receiving, or using unauthorized help on individual and group academic exercises such as papers, quizzes, tests, and presentations through any delivery system in any learning environment. This includes impersonating another student, sharing content without authorization, fabricating data, and altering academic documents, including records, with or without the use of personal and college electronic devices.

Plagiarism is representing or turning in someone else's work without proper citation of the source. This includes unacknowledged paraphrase, quotation, or complete use of someone else's work in any form. It also includes citing work that is not used and taking credit for a group project without contributing to it.

The following procedure will be used for students who violate the policy:

- First Offense – Student will receive a zero for the assignment and the student will be reported to the Dean of Academic Affairs.
- Second Offense – The student will be reported to the Dean of Academic Affairs and removed from the class.
- Third Offense – The student will be reported to the Dean of Academic Affairs and dismissed from the college.

Any questions about this policy may be referred to the Dean of Academic Affairs.

Assessment

Colby Community College assesses student learning at several levels: general education, program, and course. The goal of these assessment activities is to improve student learning. As a student in this course, you will participate in various assessment activities. An example of your work, a paper, some test questions, a presentation, or other work may be selected for assessment. This process will not affect your grade, will not require you do additional work and your evaluation will be confidentially handled. Results of these activities will be used to improve teaching and learning at Colby Community College.
