

Art Works on Display at Colby Museum

Written by Debbie Schwanke
Thursday, 22 September 2011 18:24 -

Art work created by Colby Community College students and instructor Rebel Jay will be on display through October 31 at the Prairie Museum of Art and History in Colby.

The display includes pieces from all art classes at the college.

“The pieces are 2D and 3D representing a variety of subject matter and styles,” said Jay.

A public reception to meet the artists and view the works of art will be held on Sunday, Oct. 2, from 2-4 p.m. at the Prairie Museum of Art and History located on South Franklin.

For more information, contact Jay at 460-5459.