Rebel Jay, Colby Community College art instructor, will offer a Craft Class on Tuesday evenings from 6-9 p.m. beginning this fall. The class will devote four weeks to stained glass, four weeks with batik taught by Donna Roberts, four weeks on clay techniques and four weeks doing leather tooling and creation of an object.

“We’ll be using four different mediums taught by four instructors,” said Jay. “I am asking that anyone who is interested in this class contact me as soon as possible. The class size will be limited to 10-12.”

Jay can be contacted at (785) 269-7065, 460-5459 or by email at rebel.jay@colbycc.edu.
