Accommodations

Colby Community College is committed to providing equal access to employment, educational programs, and activities for students with disabilities. The Institution recognizes that students with disabilities may need accommodations to have equally effective opportunities to participate in or benefit from the Institutional educational programs, services and activities.

Documentation

Sources of information used for determining a disability and/or accommodations may include a combination of the following:

- Documentation from qualified evaluators or professionals.
- Medical Records.
- School records that show a history of accommodations related to functional limitations.
- Student's self-report.
- Direct observation and interaction with the student.
